

GDPR PRIVACY NOTICE

For Pupils and their Parents of

Etone College

Who processes your information?

Etone College is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school is responsible for deciding how information you provide us with is used. We refer to your information as “personal data” and when we use your information in different ways, this is called “processing”. The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) outlines how personal data should be protected and used appropriately by organisations.

In some cases, your personal data will be shared with other people, organisations or companies. This sharing will only occur after we have sought your permission (consent), unless the law requires us to do so. If we share your personal data outside of school, we ensure that the same data protection standards are upheld by other people involved in processing your personal data.

The categories of pupil information that we process include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Images (such as photographs and CCTV images)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment and examination information
- Welfare information
- Relevant medical information
- Special educational needs information
- Exclusions / behavioural information
- Post 16 learning information.

Why do we collect and use your information?

Etone College holds the right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families, and we may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, Local Authority and/or the DfE. We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR
- Education Act 1996
- Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

In accordance with the above, the personal data of pupils and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support pupil learning
- To monitor and report on pupil progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our service
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- Administer admissions waiting lists
- Carry out research
- To contact pupils and parents
- To keep children safe
- To meet the statutory duties placed upon us for DfE data collections

Which data is collected?

- Personal information – e.g. names, pupil numbers and addresses
- Characteristics – e.g. ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility
- Attendance information – e.g. number of absences and absence reasons
- Assessment information
- Relevant medical information
- Information relating to Special Educational Needs and Disabilities
- Behavioural information – e.g. number of temporary exclusions
- Photographs – these will be used to aid our records management, safeguarding and attendance procedures

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- You or your parents/carers have given us permission to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your interests (or someone else's interest)

Where we have your permission to use your data, you or your parents/carers may withdraw this at any time. We will make it clear when we ask permission, and explain how to go about withdrawing consent.

The categories of parent information that the school collects, holds and shares includes the following:

- Contact information, including addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of parents and/or any other emergency contacts
- Financial information where appropriate, e.g. to check eligibility for FSM
- Information pertaining to home life where appropriate, e.g. where a pupil is identified as having a mental health issue or there are safeguarding concerns

How long is your data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at Etone College and their families is stored in line with the school's Data Protection Policy.

In accordance with GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share pupils' data with the DfE on a statutory basis, this data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. We are required to share information about our pupils with the DfE under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. Etone College is required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis
- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NPD is maintained.

To find out more about the NPD, go to

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

Why we regularly share pupil information

Etone College do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. The school routinely shares pupils' information with:

- Pupils' destinations upon leaving the school
- The Local Authority
- The local NHS Trust
- Matrix Multi-Academy Trust
- Your family and representatives
- Educators and examining bodies
- Suppliers of education and welfare services - so that they can provide the services we have contracted them for
- Our auditors
- Survey and research organisations
- Security Organisations
- Health and Social welfare organisations
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Police forces, courts and tribunals

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

The information shared is limited to the child's name, address and date of birth. However where a parent or guardian provides their consent, other information relevant to the provision of youth support services will be shared. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once they reach the age 16.

Pupils aged 16+

We will also share certain information about pupils aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

What are your rights?

Parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data.

You have the right to:

- Request access to the personal data that Etone College holds
- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing

Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.
