“To have another language is to possess a second soul.” - Charlemagne

We need a talented specialist who can teach German to Key Stage 4 and French to Key Stage 3 with a passion for their subject. We are seeking someone who will be able to provide our children with the best possible experience of these essential subjects. Could it be you?

Whether you're new to the profession or you have been teaching German and French for decades, you need an environment in which pupils genuinely want to learn. An environment in which your colleagues are as geeky and passionate about your subject as you are. The successful candidate will be joining us at an exciting time in the Language Faculty's journey, where many of our pupils will be studying a language to GCSE as part of our commitment to the EBacc qualification. We employ Foreign Language Assistants through the British Council annually to enrich the learning of our pupils. And, we are about to embark on the Turing Scheme which will see 100 disadvantaged pupils from across the Trust travel overseas for the first time. We advocate exciting opportunities for all of our pupils and we'd encourage your participation and drive for this too.

Our teachers work very hard but they only ever do work which is going to make a difference for our pupils. Quite simply, we believe in common sense approaches to everything. That means:

- Our teachers do minimal marking. Why spend ages with a red pen when there are much better ways to give pupils the feedback they need?
- We never ask for lesson plans. Of any kind. Ever.
- Although schemes of work and resources are provided, they are not prescriptive – we cherish individual approaches to delivery.
- There is no pressure to 'put on a show' in lessons: a culture of typicality is reinforced by no lesson gradings (outstanding, good, etc).
- Everyone has the highest expectations of behaviour, with all staff (not just teaching staff) reinforcing those expectations.
- A clear system of sanctions is applied consistently so staff don't have to battle with pupils.
- Senior Leadership are very visible and all staff 'own' their corridors.
- CPD is tailored specifically to staff needs, based on their feedback.
- There are no prizes for looking busy or staying late – we work in a way that suits us; we make sure you make time for yourselves and your families.

That's just 9 of the things we do to secure our teachers' well-being. There are many more here: <http://www.barrbeaconschool.co.uk/47-things-we-do-staff-well-being/>
