MPS – Early Career Teachers Welcome

We are looking to appoint a talented Food specialist who has the passion, knowledge and skill to take children on culinary adventures, opening up their palates to endless possibilities. We want someone who really knows their subject, keeping up to date with the newest developments in diet and food science. The individual should have the passion and enthusiasm to engage children through the love of their subject. If you are looking to make a difference to young persons' lives, and work in an Academy that invests in your professional development too, then Bloxwich Academy could be for you.

Bloxwich Academy is a 'good' school with increasingly oversubscribed pupils on roll as a result of the quality education and pastoral provision offered here. Every child is an individual and we strive to ensure everyone can be the best they can be.
