'Art is not a mirror held up to reality, but a hammer with which to shape it.' Berthold Brecht

To inspire the next generation of artists you need an environment with the right conditions where pupils genuinely want to learn. An environment in which your colleagues are as geeky and passionate about their subject as you are about yours. With our unparalleled professional development opportunities, you will be able to progress in your career, whatever stage you are at. There are many opportunities for working collaboratively across the Trust and to develop the curriculum with your expertise. We offer Chartered Teaching Status through the Chartered College of Teaching for anyone with three or more years of experience.

We prize love of learning above all else. We need a talented and experienced teacher of Art who has the passion to provide pupils with the best possible experience of this creative subject. Could it be you?

Our teachers work very hard but they only ever do work which is going to make a difference for our pupils. Quite simply, we believe in common sense approaches to everything. That means:

- Our teachers do minimal marking. Why spend ages with a red pen when there are much better ways to give pupils the feedback they need?
- We never ask for lesson plans. Of any kind. Ever.
- Although schemes of work and resources are provided, they are not prescriptive – we cherish individual approaches to delivery.
- There is no pressure to 'put on a show' in lessons: A culture of typicality is reinforced by no lesson gradings (outstanding, good, etc).
- Everyone has the highest expectations of behaviour, with all staff (not just teaching staff) reinforcing those expectations.
- A clear system of sanctions is applied consistently so staff don't have to battle with pupils.
- Senior Leadership are very visible and all staff 'own' their corridors.
- CPD is tailored specifically to staff needs, based off their feedback.
- There are no prizes for looking busy or staying late – we work in a way that suits us. We make sure we make time for ourselves and our families.

That's just 9 of the things we do to secure our teachers' well-being. There are many more here: <http://www.barrbeaconschool.co.uk/47-things-we-do-staff-well-being/>
